from Angola

RB-13

This is Lionel Martin in Havana -- The first of the 50,000 troops that will be withdrawn from Havana will arrive in Havana late tuesday night havana time..here is the story

The majority of
The Cuban government will greet the first 450 returned soldiers as heroes. Cuban president Fidel Castro has said that Cuban troops who fought in Havana had the honor of being the only non-Africans to have confront the forces of apartheid on the battlefield. The Cubans are committed to bring back 3000 soldiers by April 1 and the other 47,000 over the next 27 months.
