havana, july 15, reuter. -- the first group of nicaraguan students to graduate from cuban polytechnical schools returned to managua by plane, the daily granma announced today.

the nicaraguan ambassador in cuba, marcos valle, declared, according to granma, that the graduation +is a concrete example of the fraternity and solidarity of the cuban revolution.+ he said that +yankee imperialism and the sellout bourgoisie had claimed that the youth would in bad condtions and that they had been sent to receive indoctrination.+

+today, reality has proven the truth about this collaboration,+ he declared. +the cuban revolution is sending off trained technicians,+ he added.

the first group of almost a thousand nicaragaun student were sent to cuba following the victory of the sandanistas in nicaragua three years ago. under an agreement signed last april, cuba pledged to educated 1200 nicaraguan youth in diverse fields.
