havana, june 26, reuter --mohammed abdelaziz, chief of state of the arab democratic republic of the sahara (adrs), know also as western sahara, declared in a message to cuban president fidel castro that the united states has converted morocco +into a logistics base for its rapid deployment forces aimed against the peoples of the region, the near east, the entire arab nation and africa.+

the message was published in today's granma.

the adrs has been at war with morocco since its establishment in 1976.

the adrs president who is also leader of his nations +polisario front+ charged the united states with having reopened military bases in morocco and +having granted, without restriction, its war arsenal, military experts, espionage service, dollars and diplomacy...for the maintenance of the feudal, blood regime of hassan ii.+

+this infernal plan,+ the western sahara leader wrote, +was mapped out ina strategic agreement recently signed in washington by ronald reagan and hassan ii.+

the polisario front has been locked in a guerrilla war with morocco since the western sahara was ceded to morocco by spain in 1975. the adrs was officially recognised by cuba in 1980. mohammed abdelaziz visited cuba last may in what was described as +a visit of friendship.+
