

APRIL 24 1975

the copper rich African nation, North Rhodesia

* Headline (Cover)

CBC

RB-105

President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia, ~~said here~~ declared here in Havana that there will be what he called a full scale revolutionary war in South Rhodesia unless ~~the~~ ^{LIAN SMITH} ~~the~~ white ^{MINORITY} leader ~~the~~ ^{the} government there opens the ~~door~~ door to majority rule. Here is the story:

President Kaunda told reporters here that a guerrilla army ~~was~~ ^{is} already in action in South Rhodesia and that it would step up its activities if the South Rhodesian government does not ~~accept the demands~~ ^{recognize} the demands of overwhelming black majority. Mr. Kaunda ~~has been visiting~~ ~~here~~ arrived in Cuba from Washington last Monday and spent three days touring the country and ~~conversing~~ with Prime Minister Fidel Castro ~~and other Cuban leaders.~~ He left for the ~~the~~ Bahamas today, then it will be Barbados, Guyana and finally Jamaica where ~~he will~~ the African leader will attend ~~the~~ ^{the} British Commonwealth Conference which begins on ~~the~~ April 29.

00:38

This is Lionel Martin in Havana for CBC Radio News.

Commonwealth Heads of Govt

April 24, 1975
Kaunda of Zambia
the War in S. Rhodesia.
(:38)