A Cuban Committee on Human Settlements has been set up to prepare Cuban participation in the Vancouver conference.

This weekend, exactly a year before the Vancouver conference gets under way, the Cuban committee will open up ^{here in Havana,} an ~~exhibit~~ exhibition on human settlements ~~in Havana~~. Then in mid June the Committee will sponsor a Cuban National Conference on Human Settlements to take place at the Havana Libre Hotel. ~~Then in July~~ Then in July ~~the Cuban~~ a strong Cuban delegation will move its activities to Caracas Venezuela where a Latin American Region Conference on Human Settlements will be held. The Cubas will stress the social aspects of the housing problem and how they are tackling the problem of building decent housing at rents that range from two to ten percent of a families income. ~~Cuba will also tell~~ ~~of its experience in building more~~ ~~than 100 urban communities, many of them in the countryside,~~ ~~over the past fifteen years.~~
