slogans

The major slogan of ~~text~~ the May Day celebration here in Havana centered around theme of more economic efficiencies. But therer were many signs, banners and floats that also called for an end to the arms race and for an end to united states intromission in central america.

T e massive turnout was inteppreted by many diplomats as a vote of confidence for the Cuban revolution. Cuban president fidel castro watch and wave from the reviewing stand during the two hour parade in Havana.

The day's key note address by the head of cuba's trade union federation kept the ball rolling on Dr. Cawtro's suggestion that the huge foreign debts of third world nations should be cancelled. He announced the calling of a latin american and caribbean conference of political tendencies to demand that creditor nations cancel what he called the unbearable burden of the foreign debt.
