~~the~~ An high Cuba official ~~hadxbombbthkemb~~ has expressed doubt that the elections in el salvador scheduled for march 28 will be held. here is the story.

Cuba vice president carlos rafael rodriguez, his nations top foreign policy expert, said here that the Reagan administration has indicated its fear that the extreme right might win in the el salvadorean elections -- and that would hurt the image the u.s. is trying to create there.

Dr.
But Rodriguez said -- they needn't worry that much because the growing popular protests and the revolutionary struggle in el salvador has put the elections in crisis and they probably won't be held.

The Cuban vice president also had something to say to the European ~~nations~~ members of nato whose warships participated in the Safe Pass 82 maneuvers off the cuba and central america costs. Dr. Rodriguez told reporters....

The Cuban leader also said that he has still not received any official word from the Mexican foreign minister is was expected to transmit the results of his conversations with secretary of state alexander haig to the cubans
