This is lionel martin in havana for monday use. representatives of eighty eight non aligned movement nations are arriving in havana for an important meeting this week. here is the story.

The full non aligned conference, ~~which forty four foreign ministers are expected to attend~~ will begin on wednesday when Fidel Castro is ~~scheduled~~ expected to make the key note speech. ~~Representatives~~ Among the representatives of some eighty eight non aligned nations will be forty five foreign minister including at last reports costa mende, of argentine.

Although the non aligned meeting is ~~expected to~~ scheduled to speak about a wide range of subjects - ~~the iran-iraq war, israel, south africa, peace and disarmament~~ the iran-iraq war, israel, south africa, peace and disarmament -- greatest interest is on the falkland islands ~~dispute~~ conflict.

The latin american nations of the non-aligned movements - argentina, cuba, nicaragua, peru, panama and ecuador will doubtless lead the battle to put the non-alignment movement squarely behind argentina ~~and with a strong condemnation of great britain.~~

~~There is likely to be opposition among~~ There is likely to be opposition among ~~members~~ in the non aligned movement to a strong condemnation of great britain and the united states for its role. But most observers do believe that a resolution recognising argentina's right to sovereignty over the falklands has an excellent chance of being adopted.
