Young Cuban Diplomat Gunned Down in The US Will be Buried in Cuba

This is Lionel Martin in Havana..for Sunday morning use.
the service message.

The Cuban diplomat gunned down by Cuba exile terrorists in New York ^{on Thursday} will be buried in Havana later this morning. Here is the Cuban reaction

All day yesterday Cubans filed past the open coffin of the young diplomat who was murdered, gangland style, as he drove down a New York ~~high~~ street. ~~The Cubans are angry about the~~ ~~murder and the Cuban government has demanded that the culprits be~~ ~~Angels~~ brought to justice. ^{in the U.S.} Omega 7, a Cuban exile terrorist group, has boasted that it murdered the Cuban diplomat and the Cuban government has demanded that the culprits be brought to justice.

Condolences sent by the U.S. government has ^{ne} received widespread publicity here in Cuba. The messages say that U.S. authorities will spare no effort in finding the assassines.
But Cuban man in the street sentiment is ~~the~~ that of skepticism.
They point out that no one ~~person~~ has been prosecuted for the five bombings of the Cuban U.N. mission in New York in the a past two years. ~~and the Cuban government has demanded that the culprits be~~ Many Cubans claim that U.S. authorities know who the terrorists are but do not pursue the cases of violence against Cubans ^{officials} vigorously.
